

WIEDERKER WINERY TRIP

ALTUS, ARKANSAS

You could have not ORDERED and more perfect day to take a motorcycle trip. The Temperature was just right, lots of sunshine and no wind and a group of your friends, what more could you ask for.

A group of us met at Denny's at 7:00 am Saturday morning and was on the road at 7:15. Our group was Mike Borden, Tommy & Aileen Dossey, Johnny & Diana Morrison, Gerald & Kay Roberts and Ken Tramell.

Gerald had a GREAT route worked out and the trip was a real scenic ride. If you have ever toured in Arkansas, you know which route we took. We took our time and enjoyed the scenery and all of the smells.

After a couple of rest and fuel stops we arrived in Altus, AR and at the Wiederker Winery just in time for lunch. We all ate at the German restaurant. We all enjoyed a fantastic lunch.

After we ate, we took a tour of the winery and someone even brought back some of their finest.

We started our return about 2:30 that afternoon. We realized that no matter how much navigating equipment you have on your ride, we had two bikes with GPS, you can still make a wrong turn. At least we KNEW where we were at all times.

On our return trip you could feel the temperature starting to drop again as the sun began to set. After a fuel and rest stop we all arrived back home safely around 7:00 PM Saturday night

It was an end to an excellent day of riding and just like our motto says, "DESTINATION FRIENDSHIP" it was an excellent example of that.

For those who were not able to make the trip, we ALL missed you very much and hope next time you will be amongst us.
